United Women
in Faith

“In all the work you are doing, work the best you can. Work as if you were doing it for the Lord, not for people. Colossians 3:23.”

Greetings from my HEART to your HEART:

Our work as United Women in Faith should always be associated with JOY. Ordinary work, which is what most of us do most of the time, is ordained by God every bit as much as is the extraordinary. All work done for God is spiritual work and therefore not merely a duty but a holy privilege.

“Faith, Action and Sisterhood are our calling cards as we reach out to invite women to join us on this wonderful journey and find new ways to support one another, women, children and youth around the world. As we “Carry our Faith Forward”, we are facing changes in our United Women in Faith Conference “Reorganization due to Conference Realignment”. At the present we are making every effort to transits from seven Districts to five Districts. I have appointed a Conference Transition Team to lead us through a process to make this transition as stress free as possible. This Transition Team will keep each of us informed as changes are made, please keep our Transition Team in PRAYER. Our UWF Conference Leadership Team Members will provide guidance and support for the Transition Team.

We as United Women in Faith seeks to connect and nurture women through Christian Spiritual formation, leadership development, creative fellowship, and education so that they can inspire, influence and impact local and global communities. I also invite each of you to mark your calendar as our UWF Conference Events be emailed or sent out as a REMINDER!

Conference Vice President. I belong to Brookhaven First United Methodist Church which is presently in District 7; soon to be District C. When I married in 1986 and joined the UMC, my mother-in-law led me to join a Circle in UMW. Since then I have served positions at local, District, and Conference levels.

I look forward to serving you as I assist President Kathleen Smith. I encourage you to get involved with our missions this year. There are opportunities to be active in Social Issues, fellowship with other MS members of UWF at Conference, and increase your knowledge at Mission u.

Invite other women to join our organization as we work towards our mission of helping women and children.

Grace and peace to you in the name of Jesus Christ, It is an honor to serve as UWF Conference Secretary for the Mississippi Annual Conference. I am excited about the opportunity to interface with you and to learn from you. As Conference Secretary, one of the tasks that I am charged with is resourcing district secretaries. Thank you, District Secretary, for accepting this role. You have the important responsibility of maintaining the records/history for your district. ACCURACY is the key. I will be sending you some very helpful resources for maintaining those records (i.e., template for minutes, tips on taking minutes, motion forms) as well as a district training for secretaries will be held. We are called servants of Christ, using our talents and skills to impact the world positively. May the wisdom of the Holy Spirit guide us as we continue this work together. Please feel free to reach out to me at kayegriffin@comcast.net.

Because of Grace,

Conference Treasurer

As conference treasurer for 2025 it is my goal to be more intentional with maintaining a good relationship with the 7 district treasurers. I would like for us to meet via zoom at quarterly and I would like to introduce them to the United Women in Faith digital platform if they haven't already seen it. United Women in Faith has a lot to offer with more than one way of getting the information we need that will be vital to keeping not just the district treasurers informed but all of our officers. I look forward to serving as your treasurer for this year.

Berenda Pendleton
(601)259-2013

As your communications leader, I will work actively to fulfill the Purpose and find creative ways to assist communication within United Women in Faith. Work with elected leadership to promote the organization and Purpose as well as publicize United Women in Faith activities at all levels.

Meet quarterly on Zoom with the district communication coordinators or representatives.

Establish and maintain contact with church and secular press;

Serve as editor of the conference United Women in Faith's newsletter, newspaper or column.

Serve on the following committees: Leadership team, program, and others as assigned.

Ensure that conference and district United Women in Faith actions are promoted via the internet, and social media, enlisting help as needed.

Looking forward to a great year with United Women in Faith!

Greetings Sisters in Christ from your Spiritual Growth Coordinator! I am thankful to have been chosen to serve in the Mississippi Conference.

We are living in a time where it is easy to become stressed and worried about things we cannot control. What we see can cause us to become discouraged. I remind you that God is STILL in control and able to keep us no matter the obstacles we face. Paul reminds us in Philippians 4:6-7, "Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus."

As you go out into the world, I pray that each of you will carry the light of Christ within you wherever you go. As Women in Faith, we are called to let our lights shine so that those who don't have or never read the Bible will see Christ in us, and God will be glorified.

Blessings and Peace,

Laura Gillom

Happy New Year!!!!

Dean Margaret Gipson and Assistant Dean Dorothy Carter, are excited to enter into 2025 Mission u as we focus on the 2025 theme “Practicing Hope Together!” The theme and curricular will guide us to understand hope in the midst of so many hard realities. What if we understood hope as something we practiced everyday? Mission u 2025 will begin with the resurrection appearance of Jesus and the examples of early Christian communities to explore what it means to practice hope in God even when things seem to be falling apart.

Resolution

In Loving Memory

Sister Gwendolyn Lugail Coffey

Whereas, in God's holy wisdom, He has called home Sister Gwendolyn Lugail Coffey to dwell with Him in the glories of Paradise, we the officers and members of the Mississippi United Women In Faith, offer our sincere condolences to the family. and

Whereas, Sister Gwendolyn Lugail Coffey, through her work with the United Women In Faith, worked diligently to improve the lives of women, youth, and children around the world, and

Whereas, Our beloved Sister Gwendolyn Lugail Coffey shared the fruits of her labor as a member of First Unity United Methodist Church in Weir, Mississippi, and as a valuable member of the Mississippi Conference United Women in Faith Leadership Team, serving as a member of the Conference Committee on Nominations, Conference Secretary, and Conference Program Resources Coordinator.

Therefore, be it resolved that we, the United Women in Faith, as a community of believers, will mourn with the family and continue the great work of Sister Gwendolyn Lugail Coffey, Therefore, be it resolved that Bishop Sharma D. Lewis Logan, the Resident Bishop of the Mississippi Conference of the United Methodist Church, Reverend Paulette-Buford James, District 2 District Superintendent of the Mississippi Conference of the United Methodist Church, Mrs. Kathleen Smith, Conference President of the Mississippi United Women in Faith, and the Mississippi United Women in Faith Leadership Team, on this 22nd Day of February 2025, solemnly join you in submission to the will of our Father in the earthly departure of our Sister-in-Christ, Sister Gwendolyn Lugail Coffey.

Therefore, be it resolved that we bow in acceptance of the perfection of God's plan to gather each of us into His merciful arms when we have fulfilled our task on this earth.

Therefore, let it be known that we cannot replace Sister Coffey, but we will attempt to improve and live our lives as demonstrated by Sister Gwendolyn Lugail Coffey's great example.

It is further resolved that a copy of this resolution be given to the family and kept in the Mississippi United Women in Faith records.

In the words of John 14:1-3:

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

Be at peace in the everlasting love of the Lord.

Clean water 4 All Mississippians

Some believe access to water, sanitation and hygiene is a human rights issue and it's time to get back on track to adopt an integrated and holistic approach for water management.

Health and human rights professionals say clean water is essential not only to health, but also to poverty reduction, food insecurity, peace, human rights and education in any society.

Issues In Discussion:

- 1) Where does drinking water come from?
- 2) How can we protect our drinking water?
- 3) How do we ensure water is safe to drink?
- 4) How is drinking water cost calculated? What do water bills pay for?

Safe Water Forum

Questions continued

- 5) How will climate change affect our water? What can we do about it?
- 6) How can the community support and advocate engagement on safe drinking water issues?

The fact is that challenges to drinking water vary in communities: Aging infrastructure, mismanagement, climate change, dysfunctional regulatory framework, attacks on federal safeguards, and a shortage of funding to address these problems.

United Women of Faith (UWF) is addressing some of these problems to give resources to individuals or groups to work together for solutions.

An offering, an invitation to become engaged.

UWF asks: Are you ready to advocate for your drinking water in Jackson and in Mississippi?

UWF proposes that civic organizations should work to keep the government accountable.

UWF wants to generate understanding about the importance of investing in research and development.

UWF promotes the inclusion of women, youth and the indigenous communities in water resource planning.

Arlean Hall Grants designed to help women, children and families

Is your UWF circle aware of a need in your community but doesn't have sufficient funds to help? Does this need involve women, children and families in your neighborhood? Does your elementary school need support for teachers who are struggling to see that students have sufficient school supplies, books, uniforms, snacks? Are there families in your community who can't keep nourishing food on their tables?

If any of these problems exist in your community, there is a way that you and your UWF can serve: The Arlean Hall Mission Grants are available to all churches that apply, showing the help needed and a specific plan to serve that need.

~~Applications for the grants are available on the UWF home page on our web page:~~
<http://www.mississippi-uwf.com> Churches or mission agencies must explain their plans and show that they have matching funds to meet the financial needs of the grant. Expense reports will be required. Deadline for applications is April 30, 2025, allowing time for UWF groups to finalize plans and raise matching funds as needed.

These grants are available and designated to help women, children and families in need. Twelve grants were awarded to churches and mission agencies in Mississippi in 2024.

Your UWF group is invited to take advantage of this mission assistance.
